Our Big News

Celebrate Springtopia!

It's time to celebrate spring! The Activities Programming Board will host Springtopia 2000 April 26-28.

With the theme of "Mardi Gras," Springtopia booths will be set up in A.J.'s Way and Friendship Green April 26-27 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. The booths will be sponsored by clubs, Greek organizations and outside vendors. In case of rain, all events will be in the Yehl Alumni Room, Waldron Campus Center.

Highlights of Springtopia will include: ✨ April 26: Funny Fotos and Star Flicks; Student Talent Show; Massages, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., Waldron, $5/10 minutes; and the Our Lady Peace Concert, 7:30 p.m., Hammermill (see related story below). ✨ April 27: Health Center Raffle of summer supplies at the Health Center Booth; Comedian Vic Henley. ✨ April 28: Picnic on the Green; Name That Tune Gameshow; Hypnotist Thomas Bresadola; and Cholesterol Screening, 10 a.m. to noon, Waldron, cost $10, or free with Blue Cross/Blue Shield, Keystone, or Select Blue health insurance

Anyone with questions can contact Beth Shick, assistant director, Student Organizations and Leadership Development, at ext. 7659.

Our Lady Peace to rock GU April 26

Our Lady Peace will rock the Hammermill April 26. The modern rock band will take the stage at 7:30 p.m. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Having just completed a sold-out tour of Canada, Our Lady Peace will return to the states for another string of concerts. Previously, OLP topped the charts with two songs — Superman's Dead and Clumsy — off their last CD, Clumsy. The success of Clumsy has caused the CD to rapidly approach the platinum mark.

On their current tour, Our Lady Peace is promoting their new CD, titled Happiness... Is Not a Fish That You Can Catch. The CD's first single, One Man Army, has hit the Top 10 on Billboard's Modern Rock Tracks.

Tickets are $12 for Gannon students and $15 for the general public. Tickets are on sale now at the Waldron information desk Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Credit card purchases will be accepted. Tickets also are on sale at Dig Dios, Grasshoppers and World of Music.

Call the Ticket Information Hotline for more information at ext. 7929.

Our 75th Anniversary

It's a wrap!

They say time flies when you're having fun, and it sure has flown quickly during 1999-2000 for Gannon's 75th Anniversary Celebration. The celebration will come to a close May 13 during the annual Baccalaureate Mass, slated for 7 p.m. at St. Peter Cathedral.

The Gannon University Chapel Choir will sing at the event, and anyone from the Gannon Community is welcome to join. If you would like to join the choir for this event, call Sister Lynette at ext. 7437 or send an e-mail to petruska001@gannon.edu. Help us to make a joyful noise as the Class of 2000 graduates and to close our 75th Anniversary year.

Our Folks

Our Notes

A holiday Under the Arch

Please note that due to the university being closed on Monday, April 24 as part of the Easter holiday, Under the Arch will not be published that day. The next edition will be May 1. In addition, please note that the newsletter is published on a bi-weekly, rather than weekly, basis for the summer months. The last weekly edition will be published May 8, and the bi-weekly schedule will begin May 22.

Hear the latest nursing research

Gannon's Villa Maria School of Nursing, in conjunction with Sigma Theta Tau, Eta Xi Chapter, will present a nursing research symposium April 27 from 4 to 6 p.m. in the Pietraszek Room of the Waldron Campus Center.

Allen Bonace, MSN/MBA, will present a research thesis entitled The Effect of Documentation on Reimbursement for Patients Classified Under Rapid Treatment Status at 4 p.m. Poster demonstrations from 13 graduate students will follow at 5 p.m.

The entire Gannon Community is invited to celebrate these research accomplishments. For more information, call the Nursing Department at ext. 5520.

Let them eat pancakes

The President's Office is seeking volunteers to give our students a study break by serving them at the MidKnight Pancake Breakfast May 7 from 9:30 p.m. to midnight in the Beyer Cafeteria. Two shifts are available: 9 to 10:30 p.m., and 10:30 p.m. to midnight. Call Lynn Ross at ext. 7335 to volunteer.
