

FAQ: Music at Gannon

Instrumental and Vocal Music

Can I pursue musical performance at Gannon?

Students interested in musical performance can participate in Gannon's theatre department, concert band, instrumental ensembles, and/or mixed chorus.

Are there academic offerings available in music at GU?

Academic majors are available in Theatre and Communication Arts, Performance for Media and Stage, and Theatre Technologies and Design. A Fine Arts minor is available to students with applied and theoretical tracks. Music theory courses include:

- Music and Psychology
- Beethoven and his Influence
- The Music of Our Century
- Music in Advertising and Marketing
- Music in the Theatre
- Independent Study

Does Gannon offer financial awards for musicians?

Yes. Students involved in vocal and instrumental music can apply for the Schuster Memorial Music award before March 1 of their senior year of high school. Students must answer a questionnaire, submit an arts essay and arrange a try-out on campus. The application can be found here: www.gannon.edu/schustermusic.