Gannon University’s Summer High School Journalism Workshop will give rising sophomores, juniors and seniors a sneak-peek at the world of journalism with an emphasis on news and feature writing.

INSTRUCTOR: FRANK GARLAND

More than 25 years’ experience as a daily news and feature reporter. Director of Gannon’s Journalism Communication program.

The workshop includes visits to local attractions like the Erie Art Museum to learn about feature writing. Interact with Gannon’s Criminal Investigator’s Camp to cover a simulated crime scene! You will even visit the Erie County Courthouse and hear about real-life, hands-on experiences in the field!

WORKSHOP TOPICS INCLUDE:
- Journalistic writing and style
- Writing leads
- Interviewing techniques
- Objectivity vs. editorializing
- News judgment
- Beat reporting
- Features and news features
- Ethics and the press
